

B.B. Hudspeth speaks to the crowd at the “Character Counts” assembly program Monday at Hermitage Springs School. Pictured behind him is a photo of Mel Blanc, the man who voiced most of the Looney Tunes characters. Hudspeth does impersonations of several cartoon characters, and used them in the program to address a different kind of character—that of self-discipline, perseverance, and a positive attitude, among many other positive character traits.

Photo by Dana L. Long